

NCBW
100

Gentlemen's Cook- Off

October 14, 2023 | "The Hagley Museum Soda House" 298 Buck Road Wilmington, DE 19807 | 6pm to 11pm

What Every Potential Chef Wants to Know

Why Participate?

The funds raised by The Gentlemen's Cook-off, our Signature Fundraiser, support NC100BWDE programs with specific emphasis on our Dr. Teresa Drummond Scholarship fund, 100 Bridges Mentoring and STEM Development Program and the Mary Shadd Cary/Margaret Rose Henry Civic Engagement Program. Your participation would be instrumental in funding these foundational programs centered at improving the lives of Black Women and Girls across the state of Delaware. Not to mention the winning Chef gets to hold the crown of 2023 -2024 Top Gentlemen's Chef!

What do you have to do?

Agree to make your most delectable dish and serve in bite-size pieces to our 200 guests. Also, encourage your family, friends and associates to purchase tickets ($125) to the Gentlemen's Cook-Off in support of you and in assisting NC100BWDE with reaching our fundraising goals. We will host several information sessions to provide additional information and answer any questions you may have.

Who is participating?

We are hoping this year to have a record number of Professional and Amateur Chefs join us in "Cooking for a Cause" Yes, our goal is to have at least 40 Chefs join us providing dishes in the categories of appetizers, entrees and desserts.

How do I sign up?

Contact us by email at ncbwofdelaware@outlook.com or by phone to Javette Lane at 302-588-5697 to get information/confirmation forms and to get the scheduled information session and preparation dates.

Is there anything else I need to know?

We appreciate your sharing of your time, talent and treasure therefore NC100BWDE will be providing a Charitable Deduction form for your completion denoting your expenses incurred to participate as our Gentlemen's Chef!

Won't You Join Us as a Gentlemen's Chef?